

KHRC Employment Law Seminar

With newly issued ADA AAA regulations, and an ever increasingly complex work and regulatory environment, this conference is perfect for answering all the questions you are afraid to ask! Seven expert speakers address the hottest topics in human resource management and employment law. This conference is an excellent and economical opportunity for attorneys, human resource personnel, human relations employees, paralegals, legal assistants, and others to gain knowledge of employment law and human resources!

Approval for 6.00 hours of CLE credit through the Kansas Continuing Legal Education Commission is pending. Legal assistants can submit for CLAE credit through NALA.
