KANSAS HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION

2013 ANNUAL REPORT

* * * * *

OUR MISSION AND PHILOSOPHY

The mission of the Kansas Human Rights Commission is to prevent and eliminate discrimination and assure equal opportunities in all employment relations, to eliminate and prevent discrimination, segregation or separation, and assure equal opportunities in all places of public accommodations and in housing.

The agency philosophy in accomplishing its mission is to act in accordance with the highest standards of professional conduct, ethics, efficiency, and accountability. Realizing that the principles of equality and the protection of basic human rights are the most noble of human efforts, we dedicate our activities toward that purpose, believing that eternal vigilance is the price of freedom.

Eternal vigilance is the price of freedom.

The Kansas Human Rights Commission enforces both the Kansas Act Against Discrimination and the Kansas Age Discrimination in Employment Act. The Kansas Act Against Discrimination provides for a seven member Commission to be appointed by the Governor subject to approval of the Senate; two representing industry, two representing labor, one who is authorized to practice law in this state, one representing real estate, and one appointed at large. The Governor designates one Commissioner to serve as Chairperson. The term of office of each member of the Commission shall be four years or until a successor is confirmed. Commissioners may, at the will of the Governor and Senate's discretion, be appointed for an additional term(s) upon completion of the initial term. The Act also requires that no more than four of the Commissioners are from the same political party.

HISTORY OF THE KHRC

The Kansas Act Against Discrimination was passed in 1953 making Kansas the twelfth state in the nation to have a law against discrimination. At that time the agency was called the Kansas Anti-Discrimination Commission. The Act was limited to employment practices and had no enforcement provisions.

The Act was amended in 1961 to become an enforceable law prohibiting discriminatory employment practices because of race, religion, color, national origin, or ancestry and the name of the agency was changed to the Kansas Commission on Civil Rights.

In 1963 the Act was amended to prohibit discrimination by hotels, motels, cabin camps and restaurants. In 1965 the legislature broadened the Act's coverage of employment practices and places of public accommodations. In 1967 the Commission was given the power to initiate complaints of discrimination and the power of subpoena.

Housing discrimination was prohibited by an act of the 1970 Kansas Legislature, which also increased the size of the Commission to its present seven members and gave it power to conduct investigations without the filing of a formal complaint.

The 1972 Kansas Legislature further amended the Act in three ways. The Commission was given authority to investigate complaints of sex discrimination, initiate a contract compliance program, and use hearing examiners for public hearings.

In 1974, the Legislature prohibited discrimination in employment and public accommodations because of physical handicap but limited remedies for discrimination. The law has been changed since that time to include persons with physical and mental disabilities.

In 1983 age discrimination in employment was prohibited, which made it illegal to discriminate against persons between the ages of 40-70. The Kansas Age Discrimination in Employment Act was amended in 1988 to protect persons of the age of 18 or more years against age discrimination. In 2008, the definition of age was changed to 40 or more years.

The Act was amended in 1991 so as to prohibit discrimination in employment, public accommodations and housing on the basis of disability, and to also prohibit housing discrimination on the basis of familial status. The Act was also amended to change the name of the Kansas Commission on Civil Rights to the Kansas Human Rights Commission.

In 1995 two separate legislative bills amended the Act. The changes removed the statutory requirement that the Commission employ at least one full-time hearing examiner. Instead, the legislature authorized the Commission to employ or contract for the services of hearing examiners or pro tem hearing examiners to preside over public hearings, and amended the provisions of the statute regarding the terms, appointments and confirmation of Commissioners.

In 1995, the Kansas Legislature further amended the Act to provide that a complaint may be dismissed, under certain circumstances, after pending before the Commission for at least 300 days without a finding or disposition by the Commission. That dismissal would constitute an exhaustion of administrative remedies sufficient to allow a complainant to file the matter in court.

In 1999, the Kansas Legislature amended the act to prohibit the use of genetic testing and genetic information in employment decisions.

In 2005, the Kansas Legislature passed K.S.A. 22-4406 et seq which allowed individuals with allegations of racial and other profiling in conjunction with traffic stops to file complaints with the Commission. The Commission reviewed and, if necessary, investigated such complaints. K.S.A. 22-4406 et seq was a standalone statute and did not amend the Kansas Act Against Discrimination or the Kansas Age Discrimination in Employment Act. The 2011 Legislature moved this duty, now called racial or other biased-based policing, to the Office of the Attorney General.

In 2012, the Kansas Legislature amended the disability provisions of the Kansas Act Against Discrimination to bring them into harmony with the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act of 2008.

INTRODUCTION

A professional staff under the supervision of the Executive Director conducts the daily operations of the Kansas Human Rights Commission. Staff positions include an Assistant Director, Chief Legal Counsel, investigative supervisors, investigators, an intake supervisor, an intake specialist, an office manager, and administrative support staff.

The Commission is mandated by the Kansas Legislature to prevent and eliminate unlawful discrimination, and is responsible for enforcing both the Kansas Act Against Discrimination (KAAD) and the Kansas Age Discrimination in Employment Act (KADEA). The KAAD protects persons from discrimination in employment, housing and public accommodations. Charges of alleged discrimination may be filed on the basis of race, religion, color, sex, disability, national origin, ancestry or use of genetic information in employment decisions. In addition, charges of discrimination on the basis of familial status may be filed in housing cases. The KADEA protects any individual from discrimination in employment on the basis of age. Effective July 1, 2008 the definition of "age" is 40 or more years. Both laws protect those who have filed a complaint, participated in the investigation of a complaint, or opposed actions believed to be in violation of the Act(s) from retaliation for such actions. Anyone claiming to be aggrieved by an alleged unlawful practice, and who can articulate a prima facie case pursuant to a recognized legal theory of discrimination, has the right to file a complaint charging discrimination under the laws of Kansas with the KHRC.

FISCAL ALLOCATIONS

The Commission's Fiscal Year 2013 total expenditure budget was approved at $1,693,164 with funds coming from the Kansas general fund, as appropriated by the Legislature, various fee funds, and from contracts with the EEOC. The comparative portions and dollar appropriations are as follows:

General Funds	$ 1,203,186
Fee Funds	$ 12,477
Federal Funds	$ 477,501
Totals	$ 1,693,164

COMPLIANCE AND ENFORCEMENT ACTIVITIES

Civil rights law, at both the state and federal level, has become increasingly complex in its nature and application. This increased complexity is principally due to the enactment of major state and federal legislation, which has expanded the role of the Kansas Human Rights Commission and other human rights agencies.

In FY 2013, retaliation was the number one basis of complaints filed. Disability, race, sex and age continued as the basis given for most complaints filed with this agency.

The KHRC closed 937 cases and recovered $757,049 for complainants. This figure does not include the value of positions or jobs, which may have been obtained by the Commission for complainants, nor does it include other non-monetary remedies.

During the fiscal year the agency also reduced the average processing time for cases filed with the Commission from approximately 22 months in FY 1995 to less than ten months currently.

MONITORING COMPLIANCE

The Commission is a party to written agreements, which resolve complaints of alleged discrimination filed with the agency. The Commission is available to monitor the terms and conditions of these agreements, as well as Commission orders.

CONTRACT COMPLIANCE

The Commission is empowered to review equal employment opportunity data of companies throughout the state who have entered into a contract with the State of Kansas, a Kansas municipality or other political subdivision in the state. A contractor and its subcontractors are obligated to observe the provisions of the Kansas Act Against Discrimination and the Kansas Age Discrimination in Employment Act.

The Commission is empowered to investigate these state contractors to insure that entities receiving money from contracts with the state have equitable work forces and employment practices.

THE COMPLAINT PROCESS

Kansas law provides that any person who claims to be aggrieved by an unlawful practice in the areas of employment, housing, or public accommodations, and can articulate a prima facie case pursuant to a recognized legal theory of discrimination (based on race, religion, color, sex, disability, ancestry, national origin, age and use of genetic information in the area of employment only, familial status in the area of housing only, and retaliation) may file a complaint with the KHRC.

Employment and public accommodation complaints must be filed within six months from the last alleged discriminatory act. Housing complaints must be filed within one year of the last date of incident.

KHRC's intake department is located in the Topeka office and is responsible for drafting complaints filed with the agency. The intake department also provides inquirers with referrals to other agencies (for issues outside of KHRC's jurisdiction), and answers questions regarding KHRC's compliance and enforcement policies.

A complaint may be filed personally, by an attorney, or with the assistance of the KHRC Intake Unit. An individual may write, e-mail, telephone or come into one of the Kansas Human Rights Commission's offices to begin the filing process. If the complaint falls within the Commission's jurisdiction, a formal complaint may be submitted. Intake staff is available to assist in drafting a complaint based on information provided by the complainant. An employment, housing, or public accommodation complaint must be signed, verified and notarized before it can be officially filed with the Commission. Forms and information about filing a complaint of discrimination may be obtained at any area office or the Commission website.

There were over 5,400 contacts through KHRC's intake department during FY 2013. Some inquiries were outside of KHRC's jurisdiction or beyond the timely filing limit and were referred to the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission or other agencies.

The Commission offers a voluntary third-party mediation program statewide through Kansas Legal Services. Mediation services offer a possible alternative to complete investigation.

When mediation services are not selected by one of the parties, or when mediation services fail, a complaint may be sent for full investigation.

The Commission is responsible for investigating all complaints filed. It is also responsible for conciliation of cases where the investigating commissioner has indicated there is probable cause to credit allegations of the complaints.

During a full investigation a field investigator will interview the complainant, review relevant documents, conduct interviews with witnesses, and summarize the case for the investigating commissioner. The investigator's role is that of a neutral fact finder. The investigator does not determine the outcome of the case, but rather gathers and presents the facts to a commissioner for determination. All information discovered throughout the course of the investigation is gathered in an objective and impartial manner.

Depending upon the information obtained during the investigative process, the investigating commissioner makes a determination of either "Probable Cause" or "No Probable Cause".

In an employment, housing, or public accommodation case, an attempt will be made to reach a written settlement between complainant and respondent if the Commission finds "Probable Cause." If conciliation efforts fail, the case may be scheduled for a public hearing.

THIRD-PARTY MEDIATION PROGRAM

Under this program KHRC contracts with Kansas Legal Services to offer a voluntary procedure in which the parties to discrimination complaints filed with KHRC may attempt to mediate and resolve their controversies short of having the KHRC investigate the complaint.

This program was begun on a limited basis in FY 1996. Beginning FY 1997, the program was expanded to offer mediation services statewide. Twenty-five percent of the program costs are funded with private funds.

KHRC's third-party mediation procedure has been an effective means of resolving complaints, 465 cases were referred to mediation. Of that number, 152 mediations were completed, with another 30 under consideration by the parties involved or pending. At the end of fiscal year, 10 mediations were scheduled, but not completed. A total of 106 mediations resulted in case resolution.

OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS

The Office of Administrative Hearings (formerly Office of Administrative Law Judge) performs the adjudicatory functions of the KHRC. By statute, public hearing proceedings (administrative trial proceedings) are commenced pursuant to the provisions of the Kansas Administrative Procedure Act. The Kansas Office of Administrative Hearings presides over any public hearing proceedings.

At the beginning of FY 2013, there were no cases pending in the Office of Administrative Hearings, and none advanced to the Office of Administrative Hearings during the fiscal year.

PUBLIC INFORMATION PROGRAM

The Kansas Act Against Discrimination provides for programs of formal and informal education. Commission programs inform the public about civil rights laws, what constitutes discrimination and how acts of discrimination can be avoided.

The Kansas Human Rights Commission's public information program sponsors, develops, and conducts training. This task is accomplished through seminars and conferences that are open to the public, on-site training and presentations and the development of its web site.

During FY 2013, the public information program trained 421 individuals.

The Commission's information services are provided free of charge to individuals across the state. Civil rights topics most often requested included issues relating to sexual harassment, various employment topics, and the KHRC overview/investigative process.

The KHRC also hosted its Annual Employment Law Seminar in December 2012. There were 235 registrants at this seminar.

In addition to information and training, the agency creates and maintains Commission publications. Posters are available by hard copy or via download from the agency's website. Publications of the Kansas Human Rights Commission include its Annual Report, its Rules & Regulations, the Kansas Act Against Discrimination and Kansas Age Discrimination in Employment Act (KAAD/KADEA) booklet, and brochures on Employment, Discrimination in Hiring, Fair Housing, and the publication of the Commission's newsletter, Spectrum.

The Commission continued to update and improve its informational web site. The site not only provides information on the Kansas Human Rights Commission, its Commissioners and the law it is empowered to enforce, but it has links to other state human rights organizations and various civil rights related web sites. The web page address is www.khrc.net.
